

Music one-sheet example

Example only: Mara Vale, the artists she is compared with and the companies named are fictional, and every link, email address and phone number is a placeholder.

SINGLE · OUT FRIDAY 5 MARCH 2027 · HARBOUR LANE RECORDS (EXAMPLE)

Mara Vale: Low Water

A song about the night the sea wall flooded in the town where she grew up, and the neighbours who turned up with buckets. The second single from her debut album, due spring 2027.

- Genre: indie folk-pop
- From: Leeds, UK
- RIYL: Low Orchard, Night Arcade
- Producer: Tom Ashby
- Running time: 3:41

About Mara Vale

Mara Vale is a singer-songwriter from Leeds who writes hook-led folk-pop about the places people leave behind. Her 2025 EP Paper Harbour was recorded live in four days in a converted chapel and took her to 40 UK shows. In 2026 she supported two touring bands on 28 UK dates and released Ghost Lines, the first single from her debut album.

Key numbers (Spotify for Artists and Instagram, January 2027)

- Ghost Lines: 310,000 streams in eight weeks
- 24,000 monthly listeners
- 9,800 Instagram followers
- 68 UK shows since 2025

Promotion plan

- Official video premieres on YouTube on release day
- Feature in Northside Sounds (example) in release week, and a local radio session
- The video runs as a YouTube ad campaign in the UK and Ireland for four weeks after release
- UK support tour, 12 to 27 March 2027

Press

"A voice that makes a small room feel enormous." Northside Sounds (example), March 2026

Links

- Private stream: listen.example/low-water-private
- Video: video.example/low-water
- Press photos: photos.example/mara-vale
- EPK: maravale.example/epk

Contact

Management: Ellie Moss, management@maravale.example, +44 20 7946 0789 · Press: Jo Hart, press@maravale.example · Booking: Ravi Shah, booking@maravale.example